Offers

OUR PRACTICE: THE WHOLE PATH

A Five Day Residential Retreat

August 11 through August 15, 2010

At The

Mountain Cloud Zen Center

Taught By

Eric Kolvig

People tend to think of meditation when they think of Buddhism, and well they should. But in our tradition we actually practice something far more comprehensive: ethical conduct, meditation, and wisdom. These three great pillars of practice encompass every imaginable aspect of life. In this retreat we will explore in depth how our meditation relates to the rest of our noble path.

The teacher, Eric Kolvig, Ph.D. has been teaching in the Vipassana Buddhist tradition since 1985. He leads meditation retreats and gives public talks all around the US. Eric leads many retreats in the wilderness and is interested in the special value of spiritual practice in the natural world. He has a particular interest in “grassroots dharma”, building spiritual community in democratic, non-authoritarian ways. Eric has worked with many teachers but primarily with Joseph Goldstein and Sharon Salzberg, in the lineage of Mahasi Sayadaw of Burma, and also with Richard Clarke in the Zen lineage of Roshi Philip Kapleau. Eric lives in a rural intentional community in Northern New Mexico.

The Mountain Cloud Zen Center is on the edge of Santa Fe and is surrounded by the juniper forest native to the area. While close to Santa Fe the Center is isolated and large enough to provide for seclusion and the quietness needed to support the practice.

The Retreat will begin at 9:00 am on Wednesday, August 11 and complete at noon on Sunday, August 15, 2010.

Additional Information

Accommodations: Accommodations will be rustic cabins with 4 Yogi's per cabin. The cabins have electricity and heat. Bathrooms and a shower are located in the central building with the dining room and meditation hall. Limited camping is also available. This retreat is intended as a residential retreat, but because of the closeness to Santa Fe a limited number of yogi's may commute from their homes. They will be expected to attend all retreat activities. Meals will be provided from lunch on Wednesday through breakfast on Sunday and will be vegetarian. A full meal will be served at lunch, with light breakfasts and dinners. We can accommodate some special dietary needs, but not all. Please check with the contact person below if you have special needs of any sort.

Dana: Since the time of the Buddha, the teachings have been given freely as they are considered to be priceless. This 2500 year old tradition is today sustained with the practice of Dana, a Pali word meaning generosity, allowing to yogi's offer their teachers recompense for the teachings at the retreat's end. The teachers receive no other financial compensation.

Fee: The fee for the retreat is $125. There will be a limited number of $50 scholarships available for those in need. The estimated cost to this Sangha for the retreat is $240, but because of the generosity of a member of our Sangha we will be able to offer the retreat at a much reduced cost. If you can, please contribute additional funds to the Sangha Scholarship Fund. Your generosity for that fund will help many others to attend retreats. A deposit of $75 is required with your registration and may not be refunded after July 1, 2010.
