

Sita Jamieson began her chanting with the Hindu tradition of Kirtan and over the past 25 years has expanded her repertoire to include all traditions. A native of Ireland, Sita accesses the richness of her Celtic roots as she combines chanting and sacred poetry, weaving a tapestry that is both powerful and celebratory.

Among other accomplishments, Sita is a certified Reiki practitioner, and for over five years, she has been teaching the art of chanting. She also works with sound as a healing modality and is certified in Access Consciousness. For more information, go to her website:
